

Although the reported crime figures for June 2019 for Southfields Ward are slightly up on those for the previous month from 133 in May to 139 in June it is good to see that June's figures for the SGRA area have reduced from 28 (May) to 15 (June).

Once again no road in the SGRA area had more than 5 reported crimes, that being Hanford Close with the other roads ranging from 2 (3 roads) through 1(4 roads) to 0 (6 roads).

Looking at offences, not surprisingly vehicle crimes come top with 5, but, again this is down from May's total of 7, other offences which reduced month on month were Anti –Social Behaviour (down 3 to 2), Violence & Sexual Offences (down from 6 to 3), Robbery and Criminal Damage both (down 1 to 0), Other Theft (down 5 to 0).

There was 1 Stop & Search in Merton Road for controlled drugs. In the immediate area off-Grid there were 2 offences reported in Wimbledon Park Road for Burglary and Violence Sexual & Offences. In addition 1 theft from the person was reported at Southfields Underground Station, which, of course is being handled by the British Transport Police and 1 Anti-Social Behaviour was reported in the Heritage Wimbledon Park.
