

In June, the third month of lockdown there was a welcome reduction in crimes reported both in Southfields Ward, from 172 in May 2020 to 137 in June, and also in the roads within the SGRA area, from 46 last month down to 19 in June.

Incidents of Anti-Social Behaviour reduced from 19 in May to just 6 in June, all but one of which occurred in Replingham Road. All other offences reported were four or less with three Burglaries and four Vehicle crimes reported.

Looking at the individual roads in the SGRA area six of our roads had no reported crimes, five had only one crime reported and one road had two crimes.

The other two roads, Replingham and Brookwood had seven and five respectively.

Detailed crime figures for our area are shown below.
