A close-up photograph of a bouquet of flowers. The bouquet features several large, vibrant pink roses with tightly packed petals. Interspersed among the roses are bright red carnations with fringed edges. Several light green, unopened flower buds are also visible. The flowers are set against a background of dark green leaves, some of which have white variegation. The word "CONGRATULATIONS!" is printed in a bold, white, sans-serif font with a black outline, centered horizontally across the middle of the image.

CONGRATULATIONS!
